

Undergraduate research opportunity

Project: Is the trill gone? Loss of vocal sacs in frogs and toads

You will learn:

- Basic frog/toad biology
- Read and synthesize scientific literature
- Project organization
- Effective communication of ideas
- Advanced spreadsheet skills
- Basic R / phylogenetics (if desired)

Responsibilities:

- Search for relevant scientific papers
- Read scientific papers
- Collect data from papers
- Data entry

Requirements:

- Enthusiasm for learning and trying new things
- Ability to google
- Basic spreadsheet experience (preferred)
- Excitement for amphibians/evolution/behavior encouraged

Summer or Fall semester

3-9 hrs per week

Remote work friendly

Biol 5800 or Work Study (ROWS)

Accessibility accommodations available

Contact Dr. Genevieve Mount gmountt@gmail.com for application information